The present generation has witnessed the fulfillment of more prophetic signs than any generation in history; and no more significant sign has been fulfilled than the return of the Jews to the reestablished State of Israel. This book explains Bible prophecy as it applies to events unfolding in the 21st century. The foundations of our culture, our churches and our nation are being shaken by those who would have us all worship at the altar of the politically correct god. But the Lord calls His people to walk in love, obedience and faithfulness. FIND ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS: What is Israel's place in end-time events? What is Islam's role in Bible prophecy? When and where will the Temple be rebuilt? How will the Israeli/Palestinian conflict be resolved? How close are we to a global religion and a global government? Does the Bible teach about the rapture and the tribulation? David R. Barnhart, pastor, evangelist and prophecy teacher, has made twenty-six trips to Israel and visited the sites of the seven churches of Revelation. For the past twenty-four years, he has served as the director of Abiding Word Ministries, an organization that promotes revival and reformation in the churches of America. The author has devoted his life to calling Christians back to the foundational truths of Scripture.

Divine health and prosperity are better than divine healing and provision. If you live in divine health and prosperity, you wont need a miracle to get healed or to pay your bills. If you cant see the difference between the two, that may be one reason you only visit Gods best instead of truly living in it. Most Christians live in a place where its just a matter of time before there's a crisis in their lives and they need a miracle. You might think it would be wonderful to go from miracle to miracle, but that means you'd also be going from crisis to crisis! Miracles are great when you need one, but you weren't meant to continually get by on them. God wants to change where you live. Let Andrew show you how to live in Gods best today!.

Jesus travailed at Gethsemane, interceding, and agonizing ...for the whole creation. He prayed, "Not my will, but thou will be done." The Holy Spirit intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. For years, at 3:00 am, the Holy Spirit woke me up to pray. One morning, I was awakened by a bright light shining in one corner of my bedroom. I felt led to pray for specific individuals. Later that day, the first person I prayed for called saying they woke up early that morning with chest pains and difficulty breathing. They're fine now. When I told God I wanted to be a Missionary, He made me a missionary in the workplace; I've spearheaded lunchtime Bible Study groups and was an Intercessor. The workplace is a big mission field. County Courts. She was a first grade Sunday school teacher. While working at different companies, she spearheaded lunchtime Bible Study and prayer groups. Before she retired, she was a Technical Writer in Information Technology developing company manuals.

Many years ago, Saul, the king of Israel, was often troubled by a bad spirit. He was very sad and didn't like the way he felt. When his servants noticed it, they decided to help.

Popular Bible teacher and host of the Gospel Truth broadcast, Andrew Wommack takes on one of the biggest controversies of the church, the freedom of God's grace verses the faith of the believer. Wommack reveals that God's power is not released from only grace or only faith. God's blessings come through a balance of both grace and faith. Addressing many of the misconceptions believers are taught in the Church today, this book opens up the Scriptures revealing the vital connection between grace and faith. Many believers think they walk in both grace and faith when actually they are misusing one or both of these principles. Wommack addresses: Some believers willingly sin believing God's grace will cover them, while the blessing of grace is not to sin, but to release guilt and condemnation when they make a mistake. Other believers think they must "work" their faith by ritualistic prayer, confession, or Bible study.

Although all these things are good, Jesus Christ set believers free from works of the law. God wants a relationship where He can communicate directly to each believer. Grace and faith work together. When believers receive the unmerited favor or grace of God, they can release their faith without doubt or reservation and receive God's blessings. Andrew Wommack in his logical, practical style brings believers back on track in their Christian walk through living in the balance of grace and faith.

I Can Do All Things

This is pure theology- in writing With an attempt to solve via every legitimate hermeneutic certain troubling questions on salvation Is the doctrine of "Eternal Security " valid Did the apostles teach it?When is a man saved What truly happens at salvation With studies all the way from Genesis to the book of revelation, we believe all such conundrums will be well sortedThis is a detailed and lucid presentation of the subject of salvation. From a sound tone of the essence of diligence in Bible study set in its introduction to clear-cut explanations of Bible texts, a reader is intimated with the "action of salvation" and its Actor, (the Saviour) Jesus Christ. It is received solely by believing what Christ did through his death, burial and resurrection and results in man having eternal life.

Oral Roberts and Kenneth E Hagin, two contemporaries were in a deep conversation, when a stranger walked up to them and said 'I just want to shake hands with these great competitors.'They were not competitors. They were co-laborers in the vineyard of the Lord. Although at face value their positions on seed -faith giving appeared to differ, their positions and experiences on new depths of prayer were startlingly similar. Kenneth E Hagin remarked that nobody he ever knew, knew how to enter into the presence of the Lord in prayer like Oral Roberts. Brother Hagin knew this because he had prayed with Oral Roberts at times. He too had been up there several times in prayer and feared that he might not come back. Folks there are depths of prayer we need to press towards and live a life of boundless possibilities. As we avail ourselves to the Lord, going deeper and deeper in praying in the Spirit, the Lord will lead us into a deeper realm of prayer where miracles and revelations abound in our personal lives and ministries.
